GEAUGA LAKE'S HAUNT FEATURES
TWO NEW HAUNTED HOUSES
BIG TOP TERROR AND PHOBIA ARE MAIN ATTRACTIONS

AURORA, Ohio (Aug. 20, 2004) – Geauga Lake Family Amusement Park's Haunt is sure to be a scare with two new haunted houses in 2004. Big Top Terror and Phobia are as chilling as a spine-tingling horror movie put to life!

And to add to this extensive line-up of hauntingly horrific attractions, Geauga Lake will open both haunted houses at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays and will provide all scares FREE with the price of admission!

"We want our guests to enjoy the Haunt at Geauga Lake by offering quality and affordability for the whole family," Bill Spehn, Vice President/General Manger, said.

Big Top Terror

What was once the Gold Nugget Arcade is now 27 terrifying rooms depicting an evil circus. Guests can run, but they can't hide from 50 menacing live and faux circus clowns out for a laugh of their own!

The focal point of this 6,000 square foot house is a 20-foot diameter big ring featuring a daunting display of circus acts gone wrong. Imagine a tight-rope walker falling beyond the limits of his safety net or a knife thrower missing his spinning target!

Big Top Terror promises the greatest scares on earth at this frightening circus extravaganza!

Phobia

Phobia, Geauga Lake's 8,000 square-foot haunted house located across from Turtle Beach, is based on real psychological phobias. With up to 20 rooms in this clinic of suppressed fear, guests can experience any number of phobias, some of which include:

Arachnophobia – Fear of spiders

Claustrophobia – Fear of confined spaces

Achluophobia – Fear of darkness

Acrophobia – Fear of heights

Agrizoophobia – Fear of wild animals

Pupaphobia – Fear of puppets

Ophthalmophobia – Fear of being stared at

Ophidiophobia – Fear of snakes

Hylophobia – Fear of forests

It's scares gone wild at the Haunt, Geauga Lake Family Amusement Park's spooktacular Halloween event every Fri., Sat. and Sun. Sept. 24 - Oct. 31. Children can trick-or-treat at the all-new Candy Corral or sing and dance with the Midway Monsters at the main entrance each day. And with more spooky shows, two new haunted houses, fright zones and a ghostly ride on the "Scary Oldies", this year's Halloween event is sure be a scare! It's gonna be fun!
