

LET'S EAT!

Take a delicious trip to a city that's famous for great food

You'll find sweet treats among the goods at West Side Market.

Savory Spot CLEVELAND, OHIO

Why it's Tasty Cleveland is giving Midwestern neighbor Chicago a run for its money as the star of the regional culinary scene. The proof is in the pudding: numerous awards, Food Network coverage and prizewinning chefs.

Get Cooking Don't miss the fruit, vegetable, meat and bakery booths at West Side Market, one of the country's largest indoor/outdoor markets. At Chef Jonathon Sawyer's innovative Greenhouse Tavern, featured ingredients are from local farms and the menus are printed on organic paper. Other must-tries are Lola and Lolita, both owned by Iron

Chef Michael Symon, who won a prestigious James Beard award in 2009 for best chef in the Great Lakes region.

Locals' Choice The Polish cafeteria-style restaurant Sokolowski's University Inn, established in 1923, serves stuffed cabbage, fresh bratwurst and pierogi with sour cream or applesauce.

Where to Stay Built in 1918, the Renaissance Cleveland Hotel has kept its Old World feel but added modern amenities like an indoor pool and suites with spa tubs. Weekend rates start at $149 per night; call 800-468-3571 or go to marriott.com and search "Cleveland."
